MARKET OVERVIEW

Pre Open Thoughts: Global comeback

You have no choices about how you lose, but you do have a choice about how you come back and prepare to win again. A spirited comeback by global equities sounds good on a Wednesday morning. The rally is likely to gain momentum as Asian markets are mostly in the green with emerging-market currencies strengthened as economic data from the U.S. and Australia spurred risk-taking. Gold fell for a second day.

Wall Street enjoyed its strongest session in a month on Tuesday, led by financial and technology stocks after encouraging U.S. factory and construction data suggested the world's biggest economy was regaining momentum.

The Indian market is expected to open on a strong note with SGX nifty Hinting a gap up opening of 100 Points. Some profit booking cannot be ruled out during the day. But for the time being some things seem to be rising in place for the market. Back home the trigger is of course the balanced budget and effort to maintain current account deficit. With a government synonymous with policy paralysis has suddenly shifted gears.

The question back home which was there whether the RBI Governor will do the needful to give further momentum is over now as they have come out with Basel III Capital Regulations Revision where in the moves intended to ease pressure on the cash-constrained sector.

Also In a bid to ease those fundraising pressures, the RBI said lenders can now apply gains from revaluation of property to core capital requirements under certain conditions.

Index in the past 2 weeks has corrected by over 650 points & is clearly under severe pressure & has closed below its long term support of 7050.

Going Forward,

Index clearly being in a down-trend will face resistance at higher levels around 7120-7135 & Till 7135 is not crossed, expect lower levels of 6810-6820 zone. Only on a cross-over above 7135, short-covering upto 7260-7320 would be witnessed.

However since the intermediate trend is down, expect selling pressure to be witnessed on rises. Meaningful rebound (Positional) in the Index will only be witnessed on a cross-over above 7325 zone.

Position ally, If we don't reverse above 7135 & close below 6820 zone which is the 50% retracement of the medium term rally between 4531 (Dec 2011) & 9119 (March 2015), steeper fall up to 6550-6480 zone could be in place. 6550-6480 is the 38.1% retracement of longer term rally between 2252 (Oct 2008) & 9119 (March 2015) as well as support area formed by joining long term trend-line from 2252 (Oct 2008) & 5118 (Aug 2013).
