MARKET OVERVIEW

Pre Open Thoughts: Stand by for assembly!

Once you hear the details of victory, it is hard to distinguish it from a defeat. It's the day of reckoning for several political parties and few top leaders, as counting of votes begins to determine the fate of five state assemblies that is Assam, West Bengal, Tamil Nadu, Kerala and Pondicherry.

Quite clearly, it is the battleground for the BJP government as will have significant implications for reform process going forward.

It's a matter of a little more time before a clear picture emerges.

The opening is likely to be on a flat note in sync with worldwide equities as The dollar solidified its surge, spurring losses in crude oil to industrial metals after minutes of the Federal Reserve's last meeting put the prospect of a June interest-rate hike on the table. Japanese shares climbed with the yen near a three-week low.

The Fed minutes provided a jolt to markets that had been swinging around amid uncertainty over the U.S. central bank's intentions.

Back home as mentioned earlier for the day, state elections will hog the limelight and will have a bearing on sentiment. Things are likely to be choppy. Besides, a number of other important events are due in the coming days, which calls for utmost caution in the near term.

The Indian markets succumbed to selling pressure in last few session on the back of weak global cues and the Nifty closed just around the support of 7850.

In some stock specific movements PSU banks are likely to remain in focus as Govt to ask 3 more PSBs to merge with bigger peers.
