MARKET OVERVIEW

Pre Open Thoughts: Sell on Rise!!

The results you achieve will be in direct proportion to the effort you apply. The start is likely to be positive in sync with the Asian markets outside Japan tracked a surge in the U.S. and bonds climbed after Federal Reserve Chair Janet Yellen reasserted the central bank's gradual approach to raising interest rates. Oil rallied as the dollar headed for its worst month in almost five years.

But overall the investors across the world have been feeling the jitters from a flurry of news in recent days and nervousness has still not left.

For India as written in my previous notes Nifty likely to test crucial level of 7500~7550 in next couple of days where as 7700 will act as a crucial resistance level for Nifty. Any close above 7850 levels could accentuate the buying momentum and we might again retest 8000 levels.
